 Man-dy said to Hi-ram Green, Well you're the brav-est man I've seen, I'll be so proud when you have join'd the boys were fight-ing hard one day, And in the mid-dle of the fray You should have seen old Hi-ram Green from Pump-kin-ville; The day that they were call'd, by gosh! They left their field of corn and squash, And cav-al-ry; Then Hi-ram said, That's right, of course, But I aint goin' to ride no horse, Just Pump-kin-ville; He found a shell hole by his side, He jump'd down in and tried to hide, And said good-bye to all their friends in Pump-kin-ville. Then Hy and Cy and Eph-ra-ham took let me say that I will join the in-fan-try; 'Cause when the bu-gle sounds 're-treat', you wished he was back home, by gosh! in Pump-kin-ville. The cap-tain came and found him, said, "Get

CHORUS

Gid-dy Gid-dap! go on! go on! We're on our way to war! We're goin' to tell 'em to go to--well! That's what we're fight-ing for! We did-n't want to do it, boys, But now they've made us sore;

Gid-dy Gid-dap! go on! go on! We're on our way to war! war!
